Group Pictures of KCHL Senior Citizens & Staff

Ms. Peck Lian Sep, 92 years old, had a great time in the Museum!

A warm “Chinese New Year Greeting!”

On January 26 2008, the Tan Chin Tuan Foundation (TCTF) invited 36 elderly citizens from the Kheng Chiu Loke Tin Kee Home to visit the Greek Masterpieces in the National Museum of Singapore. The elderly citizens, aged from 62 to 92 years old, spent an hour in the Museum to have a close look with all these Greek artifacts from the Louvre Museum, Paris.

It was a very rare opportunity for this group to view exhibits has come all the way from France. For most of the folks in this trip, it was their first trip to the Museum. Peck Lian Sap, 92 years old, was very excited about the tour and listened to the volunteer guide enthusiastically throughout the tour.

Besides providing the transportation and the tour, the TCTF also prepared Chinese New Year Goodie bags, which include ang pow and refreshments, for the seniors that attended the event.

These seniors belong to some 3,000 TCTF beneficiaries who will have a chance to view the Greek exhibition for free until 16 March 2008, as part of the Foundation's 2008 activities to celebrate the Birth Centennial Year of Tan Chin Tuan (1908-2005).
